

ASSEMBLER-MANUFACTURING

Position Overview:

Responsible for performing a wide variety of tasks associated with the manufacture of electronic and electromechanical products within an ISO9001 environment. Duties include mechanical assembly, wiring, soldering, and some basic in-process testing.

Essential Job Functions*:

- Assemble a diverse group of industrial electronic products, which include mechanical assembly, especially traditional box builds and point to point wiring.
- Perform assigned assembly duties within scheduled time limits; may include recording actual hours worked on a given assembly.
- Read and interpret drawings, work instructions, bills of materials/routings to perform assembly duties
- Advise supervisor of any assembly issues related to quality, safety, performance or cosmetic
- Maintain high levels of quality

Qualifications:

1 Years Assembly and or Manufacturing Experience Is Preferred

Must Have Good Manual Dexterity

Ability To Use Hand Tools Such As A ScrewDriver